The Story of This Pattern

I learned to quilt in 2005, and, true to my overly ambitious nature, I decided to tackle a Baltimore Album Quilt, the “queen of quilts.” (You can see my quilt in progress on my Web site at ruthannzaroff.com/baltimore.)

My sister-in-law Michelle, a skilled quilter, gave me a vintage block, which is now one of my prized treasures. I decided to recreate the block for use in my own quilt (the original is a 16-inch block;). I drafted the pattern to create a 12.5-inch block, which is the same size as the popular blocks drafted by Ellie Sienkiewicz.

I hope you give the pattern a try. If you do, send me a photo of your finished block and I'll post it on my Web site.

This pattern is free for you to use. My only request is that you please do not sell or auction the pattern itself.

Happy appliquéing!
